Maira Oliveira - All Headline News Reporter New York, New York (BANG) - At first, she thought her full-sized boobs were going to get her through the door - okay, maybe not entirely - but Tara Reid soon realized she had made a horrible mistake and seen the wrong doctor for the job. The wild party girl has had it rough over the past year and says a botched boob job left her nipples "looking like goose eggs." Tara - who is infamous for accidentally flashing her chest at VIP events - has also revealed that liposuction left her in agony. She explained to the Today Show, "It looked like I got completely butchered up. The areolas, they looked like goose-shaped eggs." She added, "After I got liposuction I got these bumps, like little golf balls all over my stomach, and it hurt." It's not the first time the 30-year-old has talked about how her breasts were ruined by surgery. Tara told Us Weekly magazine, "My first operation was horrible. The plastic surgery left me very scarred. My breasts were uneven and my skin was kind of saggy." She added, "Before I had it done I figured, I'm in Hollywood, I'm getting older, I'm going to fix them... but I didn't do my research." Tara had previously vehemently denied having her breasts enlarged, despite constant rumors suggesting otherwise. However, she finally admitted having her chest surgically enhanced last year. She said, "Everyone does it. I don't know why I'm the one who gets so much attention?"
