

Alicia Duval Hooked on Breast Augmentation

Alicia Duvall, another British Busty glamour model will undergo her 14th Breast augmentation surgery soon . Even if it has already had several surgeries to increase breast, she will come back for more. Furthermore, she seems to have passed her love of plastic surgery in his 12 year-old daughter, Georgia. Other than the 14 breast augmentations, Alicia admits to 50 plastic surgeries in total over the past 10 years, which also include lip augmentation, and likely a browlift. The Internet world guesses her at only 32 years of age, while many suspect she is younger. What is even more shocking than the large number of surgeries is her daughter Georgia, who although she is barely in her teens, already wants to have a breast augmentation, just like her mom. Georgia says, "Because of her, I think it's normal to have surgery if something's not quite right."
